HAIL TO STAR HIGH SCHOOL

Hail! Dear old Star High School!
Thy loyal sons are we,
And we will ever be
Loyal to thee.
Through all the changing years,
Through all the future time,
Our hearts will ever be
Loyal to thee.
Though years may come and go.
Yet, still our memories cling
To those dear high school days
Of long ago.
None can compare with thee,
And we will ever be,
Until our dying days,
Loyal to thee.

In '45 'twas forty-two,
Each one a worthy member,
That made their way to Star High School
That day in bright September.

A noted class we must have been;
For teachers we had plenty,
For classroom sponsors not just one
'Twas seven less than twenty.

In '46 the Byrds had flown;
The Lesters took their places.
Not all the Freshmen had returned,
Just thirty-five old faces.

Our homeroom teacher and our coach
We knew as Mr. Mickey.
With Donald, Hal, and George to lead
We thought ourselves right spicky.

As mighty Seniors we met
The fall of '48.
With eager minds and energy
We rushed to meet our fate.

As Juniors we were STARS of note.
Our numbers, though, had dwindled.
Though few in number-great in deed,
Our fame we then had kindled.

In last year's clubs we shone again,
This year as leaders bold.
With all of this activity
Our standing, still, we hold.

In basketball our boys were tops;
Their playing won us fame.
No better school in sportsmanship
Competed in this game.

As dramatists we tried our luck,
Our Senior play presented;
Our first attempt, a fair success.
The audience assented.

Both boys and girls were crowned as sports;
This year we made our name.
In baseball and in softball, too,
We won a little fame.

The Oak Leaves is our first concern,
Its pages long we scan.
To make of this a last success
We unite to a man.

A banquet for the Senior Class
We gave with great delight.
To make of this a real success
We worked with all our might.

The year rolls 'round the clock again.
June carries us away.
We say farewell to Star High School
In memories of our day.

Members of many clubs were we,
Vocational and social.
Student Council membership
And Glee Club were our special.

Our hearts are sad this farewell time,
Though there be unshed tears
We've loved each hour spent with you
In these past happy years.

PROPHECY

In nineteen hundred sixty-two, one day in late September,
I happened back in Star High School, the place I well remember.
As I wandered in and out the halls old faces kept appearing.
I wondered how my old classmates throughout the years were faring.

At length, tired out with wandering and musing on the past,
I laid my head upon a desk and sleep claimed me at last.
And unto me a phantom came--a woman grey and old.
She offered, if I cared to hear, our fortunes to unfold.

I asked about our fair Louise, had she achieved much fame,
To learn she now just takes her ease while Tom reports the game.
June Allen doctors worn out cars; Floyd Owens is a salesman;
And Ola Mae, we're glad to say, gained riches through the mailman.

My phantom told me Billy Don had drawn some noted cartoons;
While Hal, a famous Circus man, was teaching tricks to baboons.
In New York, too, lived Evelyn; her interests were divided.
With great success she trained her dogs; fine music she provided.

Bill M. and Edward H. are now lieutenants in North China
While Clifford still works on his farm in central Carolina.
In Carolina's science lab Dr. Kern has made a pill;
This, she claims, will surely cure you of whatever makes you ill.

Colette and Verla Mae now nurse; Kyle and Bobby entered West Point;
While on a trip to New Port News, Clarence bought out a gambling joint.
Fadene, a Williams now is she; Aileen her nearest neighbor,
Their curly-headed children now provide their hardest labor.

Our mathematician, Roger M., is now a noted teacher;
While Jimmie Brown, 'tis strange to say, has got to be a preacher.
Most useful citizens are they wherever is their station,
They minister to heart and mind to make a better nation.

As criminal lawyer in New York, George Kivett hangs his shingle;
While Doris Needham stays at home and marries Marcus Dingle.
George Coggin studied long and hard to make a radio speaker
While Donald made an engineer lest bridges become weaker.

This ends the tale of those I knew in the Class of '49.
I waked to find it just a dream about good friends of mine.
May fortune treat them just as well when on their own they wander.
I'll close this tale ere't gets too long and too much time you squander.

CLASS WILL

As years roll on to closing time
And June is drawing near,
Remembrance of high school entrance
Returns as memories dear.

We'll not forget the days spent here,
The studies and the play;
The laughing joys of high school life;
Our years seem but a day.

We'll miss you all as we go on
To another world somewhere,
But first we'll leave a little bit
Of what we have to share.

To Juniors all, we leave our love;
You've been a vital part
Of golden days, and you have helped
Put Star High in our heart.

To Mr. Lester we would leave
Our deep appreciation
For your concern about our grades,
Our work and recreation.

To Mrs. Shamburger, kind and true,
We give our thanks sincere
For love and understanding ways
And guidance through the year.

To other high school teachers kind
We leave our hope sincere
That future classes better shine
In work than we this year.

To Janitor Price we leave our rooms
With hopes they may be clean
When you start your checking 'round
No dust will dare be seen.

To future athletes, this we leave,
Our suits and balls and gear.
Hold up the record we have made
Throughout the coming year.

To those to whom our textbooks go
We leave notes and directions.
If you would care to profit so
You make a few collections.

To Clyde Stutts, Clarence Williams leaves
His English composition
To aid him when he gets behind
And help his disposition.

To Jinnie Caudill, Eloyd gives
His tenderest affection.
George Kivett leaves his Council seat
To W. C.'s direction.

By Joan to Erla Mae bequeathed
A waistline small and dainty.
To Helen comes the self-control
Of Billy Don, the saintly.

To Earl Tomlinson, Doug freely gives
Suggestions for good reasons
For being tardy day by day
Both in and out of season.

To Becky, Donald doth bequeath
His intellectual prowess.
Edward Hogan wills his blush
To Jettie Ann and Doris.

Bill Maness leaves his gift of gab
To Peggy Dunn and Sue.
Kyle and Bobby leave their Latin seats
To Rochelle and Mary Lou.

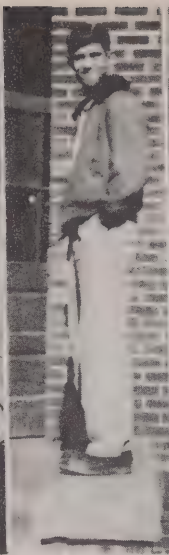

Hall and Roger freely leave
Their butts and empty packets
To A. D., John, and W. H.
We hope they have no rackets.

Louise leaves her office job
To Joyce and Frances K.
To J. E. and to Marilyn
June leaves his love of play.

At last our gifts are given out
And the coming of the dawn
Finds tasks all done and work complete;
Into the world we hurry on.
